JOINT RESOLUTION

Granting the consent of the Congress to an agreement between the State of Florida and the State of Georgia establishing a boundary between such States.

Whereas the Legislature of the State of Florida passed an Act amending section 6.09 Florida Statutes, relating to the boundary between the States of Florida and Georgia, which was approved by the Governor of the State of Florida on April 25, 1969; and

Whereas the Legislature of the State of Georgia passed an act amending Georgia Code section 15-105, relating to the boundary between such States, which was approved by the Governor of Georgia on April 25, 1969; and

Whereas such acts both provide in substance that such acts would be effective only if the Congress of the United States ratifies, confirms, adopts, or otherwise consents to the effect of such acts by November 1, 1970; and

Whereas such acts both provided in substance that the boundary between such States at the mouth of the Saint Marys River and adjacent thereto should be as follows: From a point 37 links north of Ellicotts Mound on the Saint Marys River; thence down said river to the Atlantic Ocean; thence along the middle of the presently existing Saint Marys entrance navigational channel to the point of intersection with a hypothetical line connecting the seawardmost points of the jetties now protecting such channel; thence along said line to a control point of latitude 30 degrees 42 minutes 45.6 seconds north, longitude 81 degrees 24 minutes 15.9 seconds west, thence due east to the seaward limit of Georgia and Florida as now or hereafter fixed by the Congress of the United States; such boundary to be extended on the same true 90-degree bearing so far as a need for further delimitation may arise; and

Whereas such acts of the States of Florida and Georgia constitute an agreement between such States establishing a boundary line between them: Now, therefore, be it
