

Public Law 94-399
94th Congress

An Act

To provide for an independent audit of the financial condition of the government of the District of Columbia.

Sept. 4, 1976

[H.R. 11009]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there is hereby established the Temporary Commission on Financial Oversight of the District of Columbia (hereinafter referred to as the "commission").

(b) The commission shall consist of eight members as follows:

(1) three Members of the Senate appointed by the President of the Senate (or any designee of any such Member so appointed, which designee shall act for such Member in his stead);

(2) three Members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives (or any designee of any such Member so appointed, which designee shall act for such Member in his stead);

(3) the Mayor of the District of Columbia (or any designee of the Mayor, which designee shall act for the Mayor in his stead); and

(4) the Chairman of the Council of the District of Columbia (or any designee of the Chairman, which designee shall act for the Chairman in his stead).

(c) Five members of the commission shall constitute a quorum.

(d) (1) A chairman and vice chairman of the commission shall be selected by a majority vote of the full commission from among the members thereof. The vice chairman shall act in the place and stead of the chairman in the absence of the chairman.

(2) The commission is authorized to establish such operating procedures as it determines necessary to enable it to carry out its functions under this Act.

(e) The first meeting of the commission shall be called by the majority leader of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, jointly.

(f) The commission is authorized to utilize the personnel of the government of the District of Columbia, with the approval of the Mayor, or the Chairman of the Council of the District of Columbia, as the case may be, and the Committee on the District of Columbia of the Senate, the Committee on the District of Columbia of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate, or the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives, with the approval of the chairman of such committee. The commission is authorized to utilize, on a reimbursable basis, the services and personnel of the General Accounting Office to assist the commission in carrying out its functions under this Act.

SEC. 2. (a) For the purpose of meeting the responsibilities imposed by the Constitution on the Congress with respect to the District of Columbia, it shall be the function of the commission, after consultation with the Comptroller General, to select such qualified persons as the commission may determine necessary for the development of certain plans on behalf of the government of the District of Columbia (including assistance in the implementation thereof) for the purpose of improving the financial planning, reporting, and control systems of such government. Plans to be considered for development and implementation pursuant to this Act shall include, among others, plans for the following: immediate improvement in financial control and reporting; assessing the scope of further necessary improvements; financial management system improvements; personnel-payroll system improvements; water-sewage billing and information system improvements; purchasing and material management system improvements; property accounting system improvements; real property system improvements; welfare payments system improvements; human resources eligibility, payment, and reporting system improvements; health care financial system improvements; and traffic ticket system control improvements.

System
plan, contracts.

(b) Each contract entered into with a person pursuant to subsection (c) of this section for the development of a system improvements plan shall contain a provision requiring that person to include within such plan procedures for the establishment of an ongoing training program for operating personnel of the government of the District of Columbia whose duties involve matters covered by such plan or part thereof in order to provide training for such personnel in connection with the operation of such system. Each such contract shall further contain provisions comparable to those provided by Standard Form 32, section 1-16.901-32 of title 41, Code of Federal Regulations.

(c) Upon the selection by the commission of each qualified person to develop and implement a plan pursuant to this section, the chairman of the commission shall enter into a negotiated fixed price contract or contracts with that person for the development and implementation of such plan.

(d) (1) Each such contract so entered into shall set forth the scope of the work to be performed, amounts to be paid thereunder, and a schedule of reporting and completion dates, including a schedule of implementation dates, for each portion of such work. Each contractor shall have full access to such books, individuals, accounts, financial records, reports, files, and other papers, things, or property of the government of the District of Columbia as such contractor deems necessary to complete such contract. The Comptroller General shall have full access to all documents produced under each contract.

Comptroller General.

(2) After establishment of the schedule for completing each such contract and until the completion of such contract, each contractor shall report, at such time as such contract shall provide, to the commission and the Comptroller General on the progress toward completion of such contract, except that each such contractor shall report at least once during the one-hundred-and-eighty-day period after establishment of such schedule for completion of such contract.

System design plan.

(e) (1) With respect to any such contract or part thereof involving the design (including a preliminary design) of a system referred to in subsection (a) of this section, the contractor, upon the completion of the plan or part relating to such design (including procedures for its implementation), shall submit such plan or part, together with a schedule for its implementation, to the Comptroller General.

(2) With respect to any such contract involving work other than the design of such a system, the contractor, upon the completion of the plan or part thereof relating to such work, shall submit such plan or part thereof, together with a schedule for implementing such plan or part, to the Comptroller General.

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection, in no case shall any contractor under this Act submit a plan, part, or schedule to the Comptroller General unless such plan, part, or schedule has first been submitted by that contractor to the contractor responsible for the development and implementation of a financial management system improvements plan for such contractor's review, comments, and recommendations. A copy of such comments and recommendations, if any, shall be submitted, together with such plan, part, or schedule, to the Comptroller General in accordance with paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection.

(4) Within the sixty-day period following the date of the receipt by him of such plan or part thereof, and after consultation with the commission, the Comptroller General shall approve, disapprove, or modify such plan or part (including any schedule for the implementation thereof), in whole or in part. On or before the expiration of such sixty-day period, the Comptroller General shall submit such plan or part, as so approved, modified, or disapproved to the Congress for its consideration, together with his reasons for such modification or disapproval.

Approval.

Plan, submittal to Congress.

(f) (1) Each such plan or part thereof so approved by the Comptroller General without modification shall be deemed on the date of such approval, to be a part of the financial planning, reporting, accounting, control, and operating procedures of the government of the District of Columbia. Each such plan or part thereof modified by the Comptroller General shall, upon the expiration of the forty-five-day period of continuous session of the Congress following the date on which such modified plan or part thereof is so submitted to the Congress, be deemed to be a part of the financial planning, reporting, accounting, control, and operating procedures of the government of the District of Columbia, unless within such forty-five-day period, the Congress adopts a concurrent resolution disapproving the action of the Comptroller General with respect to such modifications. In any case in which any such concurrent resolution is so adopted by the Congress, such plan or part thereof, as it existed immediately prior to any such modification, shall be deemed a part of such procedures as of the date of the adoption by Congress of such concurrent resolution. No such plan or part thereof disapproved by the Comptroller General shall take effect, unless, within such forty-five-day period following the date of its submission to the Congress, the Congress adopts a concurrent resolution disapproving the action of the Comptroller General in disapproving such plan or part thereof. If such action of the Comptroller General is so disapproved, such plan or part thereof shall be deemed a part of such procedures as of the date of the adoption by Congress of such concurrent resolution.

(2) For purposes of this section, the continuity of a session of Congress is broken only by an adjournment of the Congress sine die, and the days on which either House is not in session because of an adjournment of more than three days to a day certain are excluded in computation of such forty-five-day period.

(g) With respect to any such plan or part so deemed to be a part of the financial planning, reporting, accounting, control, and operating procedures of the government of the District of Columbia under subsection (f) (1), the Mayor of the District of Columbia, with the assistance of the contractor responsible for such plan or part, shall implement such plan or part for the government of the District of Columbia in accordance therewith. The Comptroller General shall

SEC. 3. (a) (1) For the purpose of meeting the oversight responsibilities imposed by the Constitution on the Congress with respect to the District of Columbia, the Congress hereby authorizes the commission, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (2) of this subsection, to cause to be undertaken, on behalf of the government of the District of Columbia, by a certified public accountant licensed in the District of Columbia, a balance sheet audit of the financial position of the District of Columbia as of September 30, 1977. Such audit may—

(A) include an identification of assets, liabilities, accumulated surplus or deficit; and

(B) exclude statements of revenues and expenses, changes in fund balances, statements of changes in financial position for enterprise funds, and property and equipment.

Notification.

(2) The balance sheet audit authorized by paragraph (1) of this subsection shall cover the financial position of the District of Columbia as of September 30, 1977, unless the commission, on or before August 1, 1977, is notified by the Comptroller General to the effect that such an audit as of that date is not practicable, in which case the commission is authorized to cause to be undertaken a balance sheet audit of the financial position of the District of Columbia as of such date as the Comptroller General shall recommend to the commission.

Audit.

(b) The commission is further authorized to cause to be undertaken, on behalf of the government of the District of Columbia, by a certified public accountant licensed in the District of Columbia, an audit or audits of the financial position and results of operations of the District of Columbia for each fiscal year or years next following September 30, 1977, or the date recommended by the Comptroller General for the conduct of a balance sheet audit pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, whichever last occurs, and which precede the fiscal year commencing October 1, 1979.

(c) Upon the selection by the commission of each qualified person to conduct an audit pursuant to this section, the chairman of the commission shall enter into a negotiated fixed price contract with that person for that purpose. Each such audit shall be carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The results of each such audit shall be submitted to the Congress, the President of the United States, the Council of the District of Columbia, the Mayor of the District of Columbia, and the Comptroller General.

(d) Such contractor shall have full access to such books, individuals, accounts, financial records, reports, files, tax returns, and other papers, things, or property of the government of the District of Columbia as such contractor deems necessary to complete each such audit required by such contract.

Fiscal year audit.
D.C. Code
47-120-2.

SEC. 4. (a) For the fiscal year beginning October 1, 1979, and each fiscal year thereafter, the government of the District of Columbia shall conduct, out of funds of the government of the District of Columbia, an audit of the financial operations of such government. Each such audit shall be conducted by a certified public accountant licensed in the District of Columbia and carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) For the purpose of conducting an audit for each such fiscal year as required by subsection (a) of this section, the Mayor of the District of Columbia shall, on or after January 2, 1979, select, subject to the advice and consent of the Council of the District of Columbia, a qualified person to conduct such audits for the fiscal year commencing October 1, 1979, and the next following three fiscal years. Thereafter, each individual elected as Mayor in a general election held for Mayor of the District of Columbia shall, on or after January 2 next following his or her election to, and the assuming of, the Office of Mayor, select, subject to the advice and consent of the Council of the District of Columbia, a qualified person to conduct such audits for the fiscal year commencing October 1 of the calendar year in which such Mayor takes office, and the next following three fiscal years. The person previously selected for a four-year period shall not succeed himself or herself. If the Council fails to act on any such selection within a thirty-day period following the date on which it receives from the Mayor the name of such person so selected, the Mayor shall be authorized to enter into a contract with that person for the conduct of such audits. If any person so selected by the Mayor to conduct any such audits for such fiscal years is rejected by the Council, the Mayor shall submit to the Council the name of another qualified person selected by the Mayor to conduct such audits. In the event that the Council rejects the second person so selected by the Mayor, the Mayor shall, within thirty days following that rejection, notify the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate and the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives, in writing, of that fact. Within fifteen days following the receipt of that notice, such chairmen shall jointly select a person to conduct such audits and shall inform the Mayor, in writing, of the name of the person so selected. Within ten days following the receipt by the Mayor of such name, the Mayor shall enter into a contract with such person pursuant to which that person shall conduct such audits for such fiscal years as herein provided.

(c) The Mayor shall submit a copy of the audit report with respect to each such audit so conducted to the Congress, the President of the United States, the Council of the District of Columbia, and the Comptroller General.

SEC. 5. (a) For the purpose of making payments under contracts entered into under sections 2 and 3 of this Act, for reimbursing the Comptroller General under subsection (f) of the first section of this Act, and for meeting other expenses incurred by the commission under this Act, there is authorized to be appropriated to the commission the sum of $16,000,000, of which $8,000,000 shall be from funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and $8,000,000 shall be from funds in the Treasury to the credit of the District of Columbia. Sums appropriated pursuant to this section are authorized to remain available until expended.

(b) No funds appropriated pursuant to subsection (a) of this section out of funds in the Treasury to the credit of the District of Columbia may be used for any payment under any contract entered into pursuant to section 2 or 3 of this Act, for any payment as reimbursement to the General Accounting Office, or for expenses of the commission, in an amount greater than 50 per centum of the total amount of any such payment.

(c) The chairman of the commission may enter into contracts under sections 2 and 3 of this Act only to the extent and in such amounts as are provided in appropriation Acts.
